

1

God grant to us your gift of grace,
 that inner voice we heed,
 your life-enhancing, boundless love,
 your strength in time of need.

2

You set before us life or death;
 our choice is freely made.
 We choose life with its joy, its pain,
 and journey unafraid.

3

The living water you supply refreshes, heals, revives.
 Our thirst is quenched, our hope regained,
 you resurrect our lives.

4

You do not promise endless bliss
 to those who choose your way; sufficient is the certainty
 of guidance as we pray.

In times of conflict, fear and doubt
 we turn to you as friend, rejoicing in Christ's promise that he's with us to the end.

6

So may we live each day in you
 by grace enriched, sustained, and thus upheld, death's power is lost,
 new life in Christ is gained.
